

NAME:
MFA in Writing

Note: Each line below must be 4 units of coursework.
Note: An asterisk after the course number indicates that the course was approved for the requirement via petition.

QUARTER	YEAR	COURSE #	COURSE TITLE	PROFESSOR
HISTORY AND THEORY
LITERATURE SEMINAR (LTCO, LTCS, LTEN, or LTSP)
ART PRACTICE OR THEORY (OUTSIDE OF LITERATURE)
WRITING WORKSHOPS
APPRENTICE TEACHING
MFA THESIS
ELECTIVES (Open to choice, within restrictions below)

Notes: Only the courses listed below fulfill the specific requirements. Any other courses must be petitioned for possible credit. With prior permission, upper division undergraduate courses or guided independent study courses may be able to fulfill some requirements. Refer to the MFA Handbook online for full details.

1. Graduate Seminar in Literature requirement:
 - a. LTCO 200-287
 - b. LTCS 200-260
 - c. LTEN 200-272
 - d. LTSP 200-272
2. Graduate Seminar in Art Practice or Theory:
 - a. COGR 237
 - b. VIS 211, 212, 213, 215, or 216
3. Apprentice Teaching:
 - a. LTWL 500, CAT 500, DOC 500, MCWP 500, MMW 501, REV 500, WCWP 500
4. Electives:
 - a. Up to 3 instances of LTWR 220 (Topics in Writing)
 - b. Up to 2 additional instances of Apprentice Teaching (LTWL 500, CAT 500, DOC 500, MCWP 500, MMW 501, REV 500, or WCWP 500)
 - c. Up to 1 additional instance of Thesis Writing (LTWR 295)
 - d. Up to 6 additional seminars in Comparative Literature (LTCO), Cultural Studies (LTCS), English Literature (LTEN), and/or Spanish Literature (LTSP)
 - e. Up to 6 additional seminars in Art Practice or Theory (COGR 237, VIS 211, VIS 212, VIS 213, VIS 215, and/or VIS 216)
 - f. With pre-approval only, up to 6 instances of independent study in a guided Writing Project (LTWR 298)

Please keep in mind that MFA students will take more than these 18 courses during a three-year program (as they must enroll in 12 units each quarter). The requirements above are the core courses you must complete to graduate, and they should be prioritized during the first two years.