

LTWL 120: Summer Session II

ARAB COMICS & POLITICAL DISSENT

Explores political cartoons, graphic novels, and illustrated memoirs by Arab artists and authors; uncovers the ways past and ongoing political unrest is anticipated, echoed, and reinforced through the comic genre, especially in works prompted by the Arab-Israeli conflict, US-led wars in the MENA region, the Arab Spring, and the Syrian Civil War.

[Hamid Suleiman, Freedom Hospital]

INSTRUCTOR: REEM TAŞYAKAN

TTH 11:00AM – 1:50PM

FULFILLS MEDIA OR MEDITERRANEAN REGION REQUIREMENT FOR WORLD LITERATURE & CULTURE MAJORS